

Stunning local Aboriginal Art

Most of the work featured in the exhibition is the culmination of workshops with local artists during the past 18 months. All artworks are by local indigenous artists. It's a stunning exhibition, and artworks are for sale.

The exhibition is on at Cube 37 until Sunday, 12 July, open Monday-Saturday, 9:00am-5:00pm and Sundays, noon-4:00pm.
